ARTICLE III

Members

- Section 1. Number. There shall not, at any time, be more than 400 memberships in the Association; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may from time to time sell to prospective members of the Association season memberships in the Association upon those terms and conditions hereinafter described. During any season of the Association the number of season memberships which may be sold by the Board of Directors of the Association shall be limited to that number of memberships in the Association for which privileges for the use of the facilities of the Association have been effectively terminated for such season.
- Section 2. Eligibility for Membership. Any individual, spouses, or partners residing together approved for membership by the Association's Board of Directors, shall be eligible for membership in the Association. Membership shall be by application to the Board of Directors, upon such form as the Board of Directors shall from time to time select. If a membership is held by an individual, then such membership shall be held by such individual in his or her name. If a membership is held by Section 3. Membership Not Transferable. Memberships in the Association shall not be transferable. Certificates of Membership issued by the Association shall not be transferable.

Certificates of Membership shall be issued in the name of the individual member, if membership is held by an individual, or in the name of the spouses or partners residing together, as tenants by the entirety, if the membership is held by spouses or partners residing together.

Section 5. Ownership of Property. All real and personal property of the Association shall be the property of the Association. No members in the Association shall have any ownership rights in the property of the Association, either real or personal.

Section 6. Privileges of Membership. Membership in the Association shall entitle the holder or holders of the membership, and his, her or their family to all of the rights, privileges, duties and responsibilities of a member in the Association, and to full use of all facilities owned or provided by the Association. As used in this section, the word "family" shall be deemed to include the holder or holders of the membership, and the following persons:

- a. The spouse of the holder, if any;
- b. The partner residing at the same address, if any;
- c. Unmarried sons and daughters of the holder who are residing in the same household as the holder (students who attend school outside of the City of Columbia, but who reside at the residence of the holder during vacation periods shall be deemed to be residents of the holder's household);
- d. Parents of the holder who are residing with the holder on a year- round basis;
- e.. Other blood relatives of the holder residing at the residence of the holder may be authorized to exercise privileges of the holder's membership, other than voting privileges and such privileges as an Association member may have to take instructional lessons provided by the Association, upon an "extended family membership basis". Such extended family membership shall be awarded at the discretion of the Association's Board of Directors, and upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors shall from time to time establish.

Section 7. Membership Fee. Before being awarded a membership in the Association, a prospective member shall first be approved for membership in the Association by the Association's Board of Directors, and shall then tender to the Association's Board of Directors the membership fee in the Association, an initial capital fee of $100, together with such dues and assessments as shall have been established by the Association's Board of Directors for the year in which the prospective member is to initially become a member. The membership fee in the Association is now $400.00. The membership fee may be increased from time to time, and to such amounts, as the Association's Board of Directors shall from time to time determine. The membership fee shall not, in any event, be decreased by the Association's Board of Directors.

Section 8. Duties of Members. Members shall have the obligation to timely pay the dues and assessments charged by the Association, and both they and the members of their family shall have the obligation to abide by the duties, obligations and rules imposed upon them by these Bylaws and by the Association.

Section 9. Termination of Membership.

A. Voluntary Termination. A membership in the Association shall be terminated by written notice of termination, by the member, which shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Board of Directors. The membership certificates shall accompany the written notice of termination. All written notices of termination must be submitted to the Secretary of the Board of Directors before April 1 of each year, otherwise the person or persons holding the membership shall be liable for the dues and assessments charged by the Association for such year.

B. Involuntary Termination. The failure of a member of the Association to satisfy the obligations to the Association to pay dues and assessments charged by the Association by the due dates established therefore, shall subject the member to automatic termination of membership, unless the Association's Board of Directors, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines otherwise. If a member or other persons using the Association's facilities pursuant to the member's membership fail to follow the duties, obligations, rules and regulations established by these Bylaws and by other rules and regulations established by the Association, then the member's membership may be involuntarily terminated by action of the Association's Board of Directors by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those members of the Board present at any meeting thereof, if such Board of Directors, in its discretion, deems such termination to be in the best interests of the Association, provided that at least fifteen (15) days prior to such action the Board of Directors shall serve upon the member a bill of complaint showing the grounds for the action of the Board. A member may, within ten (10) days of the serving of the complaint, file with the Association's Board of Directors, a written reply to the Bill of Complaint. The Board of Directors shall consider such reply in reaching its determination of the matter. Whenever automatic termination is provided for by this section for nonpayment of dues or assessments, no notice to a member of a pending decision with respect to termination of the membership shall be required, and a decision on whether or not to enforce such automatic termination shall be made without any necessity for notice to the member, by a majority vote of those directors present. If a membership in which a director holds an interest is being considered for termination, such director shall not be permitted to vote with respect to such termination and the number of the Board of Directors shall be considered to be reduced by one.

C. Refund of Membership Fee. When a membership has been voluntarily or involuntarily terminated, the Association, through its Board of Directors, shall refund to the member holding such membership the original membership fee paid for such membership, less such deductions there from as are provided for by Section 13 of this ARTICLE III. Such refund shall be made within sixty (60) days of the termination of the membership, unless the Association's Board of Directors makes a reasonable determination that adequate funds for such refund are not available to the Association, in which case such refund shall be made, forthwith, when adequate funds have become available.

D. Season Suspension of Membership. A member of the Association may surrender all of the privileges of membership in the Association (other than voting rights), for the upcoming season of the Association, by a written request delivered to the Secretary of the Board of Directors. Such written request must be delivered to such Secretary prior to April 1 of the year for which the request is being made. The Association's Board of Directors shall honor the request if there is a prospective member of the Association willing to accept a seasonal membership in the Association and to pay the dues and assessments required for such seasonal membership, otherwise the Association's Board of Directors shall refuse such request and the member holding the membership shall be liable for the dues and assessments established by the Association for the upcoming season.

Section 10. Membership List. As indicated above, membership in the Association shall be by application to the Association's Board of Directors. Upon receipt of an application for membership, the prospective member's name shall be placed upon a list of prospective members in the Association. Names of prospective members shall appear upon such list in the order in which the applicable membership applications are received by the Association's Board of Directors. As memberships in the Association become available, such memberships shall be tendered to the prospective members of the Association in the order in which their names appear upon such membership list, unless the Association's Board of Directors, in its discretion, determines that it would not be in the Association's best interest to tender membership to a particular prospective member, in which case a membership shall not be tendered to such prospective member and such prospective member's name shall be removed from the list of prospective members. If a membership is tendered under this section, and is not taken by the prospective member, such member's name shall be removed from the membership list, unless the Board of Directors determines otherwise.

Section 11. Seasonal Memberships. After all memberships in the Association which are available have been filled by prospective members to which memberships have been tendered in that manner described in the preceding section of these Bylaws, available seasonal memberships in the Association, shall be tendered to those prospective members of the Association whose names appear upon the membership list described in the preceding section of these Bylaws, in the order in which such names appear upon such list; provided, however, that the Association's Board of Directors, in its discretion, shall have the power to remove a name of a prospective member from the membership list if such Board of Directors determines that it would not be in the Association's best interests to tender a membership in the Association to the particular prospective member. Prospective members of the Association shall be obligated to accept seasonal memberships in the Association, if tendered to them (unless the prospective member is going to be out of the city for a substantial portion of the upcoming season), otherwise, their names shall be removed from the list of prospective members by the Association's Board of Directors. A prospective member whose name has been removed from the list in such fashion shall be permitted to reapply to the Association's Board of Directors for membership, in which case the name of such prospective member shall be again placed upon the list of prospective members in the order in which the application of such prospective member is received.

Section 12. Privileges and Duties of Seasonal Membership. A seasonal member of the Association and the members of his or her family as identified by Section 6 of this ARTICLE III shall, for the season of the Association for which a seasonal membership is held, have those rights, privileges, duties and obligations as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors provided that voting rights shall be retained by the member holding the membership for which a seasonal suspension has been effected.

Section 13. Annual Dues. Each member of the Association, and each prospective new member of the Association and each prospective seasonal member of the Association shall be obligated to remit to the Association's Board of Directors those annual dues and assessments, if any, established by the Association in the manner hereinafter described in these Bylaws on or before the date established for payment thereof by the Association, and, in the event no such date is established by the Association, by on or before May 1st. If dues or assessments are not paid by the dates established for payment therefore, if any, or by May 1st, in the event no dates are established for payment therefore, then same shall be considered delinquent. If a prospective new member or a prospective seasonal member is delinquent in the payment of dues or assessments, then such prospective new member or prospective seasonal member shall not receive either a membership or seasonal membership in the Association, and his or her name shall be removed from the list of prospective members in the Association and shall not again be placed upon such list, unless the Association's Board of Directors, in its discretion, determines otherwise. If a member of the Association becomes delinquent upon dues or assessments, then, as hereinabove indicated in these Bylaws, the membership of such member shall be automatically terminated, unless the Association's Board of Directors, in its discretion, determines otherwise. No facilities of the Association shall be available to any member who is delinquent upon dues or assessments, or to the members of such member's family. If the membership of a member who is obligated to the Association for unpaid dues and assessments is terminated as hereinabove provided for in these Bylaws, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereinabove contained in these Bylaws, the refund of the membership fee hereinabove provided for shall be reduced by the sum of the dues and assessments for which the member whose membership has been terminated is obligated to the Association.

Section 14. Emeritus Memberships. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 of this Article III, there shall be unlimited emeritus memberships in addition to the 400 memberships authorized by said Section 1. Those eligible for emeritus status shall be individuals or couples 65 years of age or older by May 1 of the year they wish to convert to emeritus status and who have been a full member of the Association for one year prior to emeritus application. Those wishing to become emeritus members must indicate their decision no later than April 15. Dues for emeritus members shall be $275.00 per year. Emeritus members shall be allowed 50% of guest passes (10) allocated to regular members. Emeritus Memberships may only be seasonally suspended with another person eligible for emeritus status. All other provisions of the Bylaws applicable to regular members shall apply.

Section 15. Single Memberships. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 of this Article III, there shall be no more than ten (10) single memberships in addition to the 400 memberships authorized by said Section 1. Those eligible for single shall be individuals and shall indicate their intention for a single membership at the time of application or no later than April 15. Dues for single members shall be $275.00 per year. Single members shall be allowed 50% of guest passes (10) allocated to regular members. Single Memberships may only be seasonally suspended with another person eligible for single status. All other provisions of the Bylaws applicable to regular members shall apply.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1. Liability and Indemnification of Officers and Directors. The Association shall indemnify every officer and director of the Association, against any and all expenses, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon any officer or director in connection with any action, suit or other proceeding (including the settlement of any such suit or proceeding if approved by the then Board of Directors of the Association) to which he or she may be made a party by reason of being or having been an officer or director of the Association whether or not such person is an officer or director at the time such expenses are incurred. The officers and directors of the Association shall not be liable to the members of the Association for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise except for their own individual willful misconduct or bad faith. The officers and directors of the Association shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract or other commitment made by them, in good faith, on behalf of the Association and the Association shall indemnify and forever hold each such officer and director free and harmless against any and all liability to others on account of any such contract or commitment. Any right of indemnification provided for herein shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which any officer or director of the Association, or former officer or director of the Association may be entitled.

Section 2. Common or Interested Directors. The directors shall exercise their powers and duties in good faith and with a view of the interests of the Association. No contract or other transaction between the Association and one or more of its directors, or between the Association and any corporation, firm or association in which one or more of the directors of this Association are directors or officers are pecuniarily or otherwise interested, is either void or voidable because such officer or directors are present at the meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee therefore which authorizes or approves the contract or transaction, or because his, her or their votes are counted for such purpose, if any of the conditions specified in any of the following subparagraphs exist:

(a) The fact of the common directorate or interest is disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or a majority thereof or is noted in the minutes, and the board authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction in good faith by a vote sufficient for the purpose; or

(b) The fact of the common directorate or interest is disclosed or known to the directors, or a majority thereof, and they approve or ratify the contract or transaction in good faith by a vote sufficient for the purpose; or

(c) The contract or transaction is commercially reasonable to the Association at the time it is authorized, ratified, approved or executed. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum of any meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies any contract or transaction, and may vote thereafter to authorize any contract or transaction with like force and effect as if he or she were not such director or officer of such other corporation or not so interested.

In addition, the Association's Board of Directors may at its discretion cause the books and records of the Association to be audited for any fiscal year of the Association, and shall make such audits, when conducted, together with the books and records of the Association, available for inspection by any individual members of the Association at all reasonable times, and shall make such audits, when conducted, available as a part of the notice of the annual meeting of the Association.

ARTICLE XII

Dues and Assessments

Section 1. Recommendation by Board of Directors. In addition to its powers and duties as specified by the above provisions of these Bylaws, the Association's Board of Directors shall have the duty and responsibility to recommend to the members of the Association, dues and assessments to be charged by the Association for each fiscal year of the Association. Such recommendations shall be forwarded to the members of the Association as a part of the notice of the annual meeting of the Association, and shall be again presented to the members at the annual meeting of the members of the Association. Such recommendations of the Board of Directors shall be made with a view towards the projected budget of the Association, and the need for funds by the Association.

Section 2. Annual Dues.

a. Purpose of Dues. The annual dues levied by the Association shall be used exclusively by the Association to operate, improve and maintain the property of the Association and the facilities owned and provided by the Association, including but not limited to the payment of taxes and insurance, repairs to, improvement of, operations of, and replacements of the property, equipment and facilities, and for the costs of labor, equipment, materials, supplies, management and supervision for the properties and facilities of the Association, for the costs of auditing the Association's books and records and paying necessary fidelity bond premiums, and for the purpose of paying interest and principal on debts approved by the Association's membership. In no event shall annual dues be used to pay interest and principal on debts incurred for the purpose of expanding or adding to the Association's properties or facilities unless the incurring of such debt for such purpose, and the use of dues to pay such debt has been previously approved by the Association's membership.

b. Amount to be Recommended by Board of Directors. Each year, prior to sending out the notice of the annual meeting of the members, the Board of Directors of the Association shall estimate the total amount necessary to pay the costs of wages, auditing fees, fidelity bond premiums, materials, insurance, services, debt service, (principal and interest on debt previously incurred) supplies, equipment and other items which will be required during the ensuing fiscal year of the Association for operating, improving, maintaining and repairing and replacing the facilities and properties of the Association, together with a reasonable amount considered by the Board of Directors to be necessary for a reserve for contingencies and replacements. As indicated above, such recommendations shall be forwarded to the members of the Association, together with the notice of the annual meeting of the members of the Association. Such recommendation made by the Board of Directors of the Association shall contain a reasonable itemization of the sums to be required by the Association for the upcoming fiscal year.

c. Voting on Annual Dues. As hereinabove indicated by these Bylaws, the annual dues to be charged by the Association to its members and seasonal members shall be established by a vote of the membership at each annual meeting of the Association. If the membership of the Association fails to agree upon, and approve annual dues for the upcoming year of the Association, at an annual meeting of the Association, then the dues shall be set at the amount established for the preceding fiscal year of the Association. If an increase in annual dues (over and above the sum charged for the preceding year) is required to fully pay for the costs of wages, materials, insurance, services, debt services, supplies and other items to be required for the operation, maintenance, improvement, replacement or repairs of the Association's properties or facilities for the upcoming year, such an increase may be approved by a majority vote of those members present, in person or by proxy. However, additional debt shall not be incurred for the purpose of expanding or adding to the facilities or the properties of the Association, nor shall annual dues be used for the purpose of paying interest or principal on such additional debt, unless the incurring of additional debt for such purpose, and the use of annual dues for such purpose, has received the favorable vote of two-thirds (2/3) of those members present, in person or by proxy, at the annual meeting. Once the use of annual dues for the purpose of servicing additional debt has been approved in such manner, the servicing of such debt shall be considered a part of the normal operating expenses of the Association until the debt has been paid, in full, at which time the dues shall be deemed to be automatically reduced by the additional sum required to service the debt. The reinstatement of such sum for the purpose of servicing the new debt shall again require approval by a two-thirds (2/3) vote in the manner described above.

d. Notice of Annual Dues. The membership of the Association shall be advised of the annual dues within two (2) weeks after approval by the Association's membership. Unless otherwise specified by the membership at the annual meeting, annual dues shall become due and payable, in full, by May 1st and are delinquent thereafter.

e. Annual Dues to be Voted Upon Only at Annual Meeting. Annual dues of the Association shall be voted upon only at the annual meeting of the Association and at no other time.

Section 3. Special Assessments. In addition to the annual dues authorized above, the Association may levy in any fiscal year, a special assessment applicable to that year only, for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of any construction or reconstruction, or unexpected repair or replacement of a capital improvement upon property owned by the Association, including the necessary fixtures and personal property related thereto, provided that such an assessment to be used for reconstruction, repair or replacement shall require only a majority vote of the members, but that an assessment for any other purpose must have the assent of two-thirds (2/3) of the votes of those members who are voting in person or by proxy at an annual meeting of the Association. A special assessment for repairs, replacement or reconstruction may be voted at any meeting of the membership. A special assessment for other purposes shall be established only at the annual meeting of the Association. If the vote of the membership establishing such a special assessment so specifies, such a special assessment can be deemed to be an increase in the membership fee paid by each of the members for his, her or their membership, and shall be eligible for refund, as such, as hereinabove provided in these Bylaws. Unless otherwise specified by the vote of the membership establishing an annual assessment, an annual assessment shall be due and payable by May 1st, and shall be delinquent thereafter.

Section 4. Installments. If the membership, at the meeting establishing annual dues and any special assessments so determined by the resolution establishing such annual dues and assessments, same may be payable in installments due upon such dates as shall be established by such resolution.

ARTICLE XIII

Insurance

In addition to their duties and responsibilities as hereinabove described, the Association's Board of Directors shall have the duty and responsibility to see to it that the facilities of the Association are insured for the replacement value thereof, against loss, damage or destruction by fire, or other casualty, and shall be responsible for obtaining and maintaining a policy or policies insuring the Association, and its Board of Directors, against any liability to any persons, the liability under which insurance shall be not less than Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000.00), single limit for personal injury to or death of any persons and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) for property damages. Such limits shall be reviewed annually by the Association's Board of Directors and may be increased in its discretion. The Association's Board of Directors shall also obtain Workmen's Compensation Insurance to the extent necessary to comply with any applicable laws.

ARTICLE XIV

Committees

Section 1. The President, at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors with the advice and consent of the Board of Directors, shall appoint, for the ensuing year, any committees which are deemed necessary.

ARTICLE XV

Amendment of Bylaws

These Bylaws may be amended, repealed or new Bylaws made by action of the membership at any annual meeting of the membership, providing that written notice has been given stating the proposed Bylaw's changes. Amendment, repeal or new Bylaws shall require the favorable vote of three-fourths (3/4) of those members present at a membership, in person or by proxy.

These Bylaws adopted this 12th day of March 1974 and amended this 1st day of March 2016.
